

Criminal Justice Reform

LENTEN SERIES

March 13, March 20, & March 27, 2019

Free series hosted by St. John's Episcopal Church Social Justice Commission

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13

Viewing and discussion 6:30 PM
of the 2018 HBO award-winning documentary The Sentence, the story of Cindy Shank, a mother of three who received a 15-year mandatory sentence for conspiracy charges related to her deceased ex-boyfriend's crimes.

Optional Dinner: "Empty Bowls" fundraiser at 5:30 pm. Enjoy a meal comprised of a variety of hearty homemade soups donated by the Outreach Commission & bread donated by The Breadery.
Register: <https://bit.ly/LentenDinners2019>

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20

Panel discussion of prison 6:30 PM
reform, mandatory minimum sentencing,
and the school-to-prison pipeline.
Audience questions encouraged.

Guests:
Rich Gibson, Ho. Cty. State's Attorney
Willie Flowers, Ho. Cty. NAACP President
Dr. Coleman Bazelon, ACLU of MD Board/President
Al Collins, Leg. Director United Black Episcopalians
Lou Willemin, Acting Ho. Cty. Public Defender

Optional Dinner: St. John's J2A youth fundraiser
at 5:30 pm. Register: <https://bit.ly/LentenDinners2019>

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27

Take action! Round table 6:30 PM sessions to support criminal justice reform.

Guests:
Jack Kavanagh, Ho. Cty. Dept. of Corrections/Director
Cheryl Rowe, Ho. Cty. Dept. of Corrections/ReEntry
Phil Caroom, Maryland Alliance for Justice Reform
Flo Kennedy Stack, Turning Pages Reading Program
Representatives from NAACP & League of Women Voters

Optional Dinner: St. John's J2A youth fundraiser
at 5:30 pm. Register: bit.ly/LentenDinners2019

Teens 14+ are welcome to attend all sessions.

LOCATION:
St. John's Parish Day School
All Saints Hall
9120 Frederick Rd,
Ellicott City, MD 21042